AT DAVIS' BROADWAY. Vaudeville and Motion Pictures Make

Good Show

In a combination of vandeville and motion pictures that scores a hit above the average the Davis Broadway thethe reads their midweek change on Thursday. In the comedy singing and talking act of Murphy and Andrews it is a fiddle how any one of the name of Murphy ever gained such a command of German, but the act furnished an enjoyable lot of laughs and some sweet enjoyable lot of laughs and some sweet singing. Jack Stead maless good on the stage alone, and the Julia Redmond act brings several elever performers, who read the lines in a manner doubly acceptable because of the fact that if there is a "pill to swallow" it is a su-gar coated one and is washed down with laughs.

Basis For Dr. F. M. Dunn's Claim Against Manwaring Association in New London-Arguments Today-Karoli Divorce Case in Superior Court Completed-Judgment Against Beckwith Co. For $1908.

Thursday, at 12 o'clock Judge Case that was given to Dr. Dunn. Dr. Dunn f the superior court at New London, since he first began to occupy the property, has had three leases from the the Manwaring hospital to have injunction against them, obtained Dr. Frank M. Dunn, restraining hospital, all of which were signed by Dr. Charles B. Greaves as president. A lease also was shown to have been given to Mr. Darrow of one of the hospital from tearing down the building in which Dr. Dunn has his dwelling apartments and office.

Since the injunction issued by Judge Case was served on the hospital on Wednesday, the workmen have ceased all work on the Dunn building.

In support of their application to have the injunction removed so that the hospital can proceed with the tearing down of the Dunn building, the hospital called as witnesses the he hospital called as witnesses the following members of the board of rustees: Rev. J. W. Bixler, George S. Palmer, Dr. F. N. Brayman, Alfred Coit, William T. Hobson, Frederick of the hospital. W. Mercer.

They all testified that they knew nothing until the spring and summer given by the president of the hospita given by the president of the hospital corporation to Dr. Dunn in October, 1911, for three years, from October 1, 1911, until the spring and summer of 1914. They admitted, however, that hone of them ever attended to leasing the Dunn building to tenants, or to collecting rents or to making repairs; that those matters were attended to for the corporation by James N. Greaves and that the hospital received all the rents that were collectelved all the rents that were collect ed by Mr. Greaves. It appeared in evidence that the corporation in Jan-uary, 1911, by a vote of the board of trustees appointed Mr. Greaves to be the agent for all the real estate of the hospital.

Dr. Dunn was a witness and testified that all his negotiations for the three-year lease that he took from the hospital in October, 1911, were conducted and concluded with Mr. Greaves. That at the end of the negotiations the president of the hospital corporations, Dr. Charles B. Greaves, signed the three-year lease as the agent of the hospital; that in the lease Dr. Greaves stated in express words that he was authorized by the corporation to make the lease of St. Patrick's Parish Here for Past Fifteen Years-Rev. J. H. Broderick to Succeed Him Here.

Sunday will be the last day on which Rev. Hugh Treanor will occupy the pulpit as rector of St. Patrick's church, as announcement has been made of his transfer, at his own request, to his former parish, the Sacred Heart parish in Waterbury. The last rector of that church, Rev. Father Skelly, died a short time ago.

The Waterbury parish is much smaller than the Norwich parish, which is regarded as the best in this diocese. There is considerable work to be done in Waterbury, and the parish is under a heavy debt. Father Treamor was its a heavy debt. Father Treanor was its first rector, going there in 1885, and has a desire to see it rank with the best in the dlocese. He feels that there is a greater work for him there than in St. Patrick's parish. He will

than in St. Patrick's parish. He will locate in Waterbury next week.

Father Treanor came to St. Patrick's parish fifteen years ago next month, and was previously located for thirteen years in Waterbury. During Father Treanor's stay in Norwich the convent has been built and large grounds were purchased for a new cemetery. The parish debt has been paid and the church has been refinished until it is in as fine shape as when dedicated. The church was consecrated a year ago. He has accomplished much in the interest of religion during his life in Norwich, and the parish has prospered under his care. He has gained the respect and good will of the community in general, and his departure from this city will be a source of deep regret to all.

Father Treanor was born in Providence. He attended the Sulpician college in Montreal and graduated from St. Mary's Seminary in Baltimore, and was ordained in that city Dec. 21, 1878. So far as the evidence disclosed all the leases made of the hospital property from the time the corporation first obtained the real estate were made by the president of the hospital. Dr. Greaves, as their general agent and manager, and without any question or objection ever being made by any member of the board of trustees of the hospital. At 4 o'clock all the evidence in the case had been heard and Judge Case decided that he would hear the arguments today at noon at New London.

The plaintiff is represented by William H. Shields and Donald G. Perkins and the defendants by Hull, Maguire & Hull, all three members of the firm participating in the case,

Sure Way to Regain Robust Bloom and Youth

(From Woman's Tribune)

A smooth, velvety-soft skin, with a delicate peach-like bloom, is one of the Creator's most exquisite works. When the first blush of youth is over, this beautiful tint of satiny lustre are rarely seen. How to preserve them— that's the question. Famous beauty experts abroad long have known that ordinary mercolized wax works won-ders in this direction. It actually Webster, Mass., Oct. 3-Matilda Roy gives a new surface to the skin, remany years a resident of Norwich, storing that marvelous girlish color Danielson and Thompson, died at her home on Oak street today, following An ounce of this wax, procurable at any drug store, will convert a faded, worn-out or discolored complexion into one of captivating loveliness in less than two weeks. Science Understands the Stomach

Treating Indigestion with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Is An Exact Science. They Give Quick Relief.

Medical men have learned m about the stomach than perhaps any other vital organ. They have dis-covered why the stomach rebels at certain conditions what causes the formation of gases—what causes flatulency, heartburn, dyspepsia, bur sensation, brash, and all the other orders of the stomach.

They have gone further. They have found remedies for all these afflictions. these results of improper digestion. They have learned that pepsin, hydro-chloric acid and fruit salts are pow-erful digestants that relieve quickly and surely all the troubles to which the stomach is subject. They have discovered that one grain of these properties will digest 3,000 grains of food. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are not a medicine. They are a scientific compound that supplies the stomach with the digestive agents which it is itself unable to provide. When your stomach is sick and not working right—when it falls to give out enough of the digestive juice to properly take care of the food you eat, these tablets will make up the deficiency. You will have no indigestion. Your food will digest thoroughly.
